WHEN ANGELS FALL PART 2

After months of chasing shadows the Dark Angels manage to pick up on rumours that Cypher has been spotted on the Planet Shroud. Quickly they dispatch a strike cruiser to seek out the fallen angel.

The Grey Knights have also picked up portents of warp energies building on the planet- Shroud. As they move in system they receive a message from the Dark Angels. Perhaps these two mysterious forces have a common goal...Perhaps.

On the planet surface cypher waits to greet the foul warband of his once brother Marbas

Handing over the murder sword to Marbas is the only way to free him from his shackles, and release his soul from daemon-hood. As the dark angels approach, his plan nears completion.

The once Dark Angel Marbas longs to gift his master the Anathame- the only way he can release his bindings as a slave and grow more powerful.

In the Ruins of an ancient temple, from a time before old night- the stage is set. Can Cypher hold off the Imperials long enough to close the trap? Can the Dark Angels claim their prize of cypher and can the grey knights defeat the daemon prince and control the Anathame.

Victory conditions

Dark Angels must capture Cypher

Grey Knights must kill the Daemon Prince.

Cypher must escape after Marbas has been slain.

The Daemon prince must survive with 25% of his forces.
